BurrianaNova

BurrianaNova (Burriana - Spain)

BurrianaNova is a new sport seascape made up of two buildings located inside a dock at the port of Burriana, in Castellón. An innovative design applied with the newest technologies by the architect Ramón Pascual de la Torre.

Vives Tiles provides BurrianaNova with the quality and strength of porcelain tiles, using Greisen series in 40x60cm format that is characterized by being a very hard floor tile because of its similarity to natural stone.

This building facilities include a large banquet room which floor have been tiled with Metropolis ceramic series in 40x60cm format, achieving an innovative design that emulates the concrete.

Boutique Steel Bobsin

Boutique Steel Bobsin (Hanover - Germany)

Steel Bobsin Partner is a more than 10 years of experience company that has developed several projects in various disciplines. This project corresponds to the opening of a new store of Hessnatur brand, located in the German city of Hanover.

The project has a modern and contemporary design and the ceramic material chosen for the floors of this property is the Vendôme tiles series, a porcelain tile characterized by its variety of formats and colours. For this occasion, we have chosen the pieces in 30x60cm, rectified glazed body in basalto colour.

Project Exedra

Project Exedra (Vives)

An inspiration is the reason of this project, a contemporary construction of a single family house where the design is based on a exceptional ceramic piece, Exedra.

Exedra, with a natural design, alternative and sincere, evokes the nature. It is present in every room and links the different spaces. The facade, made entirely of ceramic stone in a 60x120cm format and in combination with glass, reveals a large, bright and contemporary dwelling.

Foresta Building Hall

Foresta Building Hall (Alcora - Spain)

Design and quality are implicit values in all VIVES projects and the hall of the Foresta building is an example of this work and dedication. VIVES has provided solutions adapted to the building features, where the aesthetics and personality are reflected in its hall. Porcelain Vendome was the series chosen, its colours Musgo and Basalto in size 20x90 cm. An intelligent and unique fixing installation was used to achieve an original and modern atmosphere. VIVES is proud to have added to the character of the building, displaying an item that offers a formal and distinctive surrounding.

Sopa de Lletres

Sopa de Lletres (Castellón - Spain)

The Sopa de Lletres restaurant combines both a high quality cuisine together with a unique interior design. VIVES Azulejos y Gres has taken part in another innovative and stunning project, a restaurant located in Castellón de la Plana where you can both enjoy the decoration and the taste of its wonderful dishes. This project has been carried out by YM Interior Design Studio. It was such a challenge not only because of the location and functionality of the space but also they wanted the decoration to have a profound impact on clients. The difficulty of attracting different kinds of people was overcome by the combination of different styles. The team of interior designers used the series 1900 from VIVES as a project guide, which has proved successful regionally.

Metropolitan Lounge

Metropolitan Lounge (Skopje - Macedonia)

VIVES Azulejos y Gres reinforces its presence in Macedonia where the company has taking part on a project for SM Investment. The former Arabesque Lounge Restaurant, now called Metropolitan Lounge Restaurant has become one of the most interesting places to visit in Skopje. VIVES participation was based on many aspects of the project and gave it warmth and elegance in the restaurant area. Stone Design was the team of designers that carried out the project. They chose VIVES porcelain and floor tiles to design the Metropolitan Lounge Restaurant. The porcelain collection Kenion of 60x60 cm was used as the floor tile along the bars and the Güell tile from 1900 collection of 20x20cm was used for the toilets of the restaurant. The project combines VIVES ceramic products with a personal decoration in order to make the client feel comfortable and relaxed inside the restaurant.

Sísif Bar-Restaurant

Sísif Bar-Restaurant (Castellon - Spain)

Castellon's bar & restaurant Sisif has recently opened its doors to the public to show the magnificent design carried out by Fustecma. This project which shows off the Montaner Azul tile which belongs to 1900 collection (20x20cm) combining it perfectly with the Blanco and Florentina tiles that are part of the same collection together with the wall tile Buril and Vano Marfil that comes from the Wäsel (20x50 cm.) collection. Together these create a dynamic and warm setting from a certain age together with a modern edge. The decoration is classical and centred around natural materials such as walnut wood. The bathrooms which also boast our tiles combine the Buril and Vano Marfil, which also comes from the Wäsel (20x50 cm.) collection and the Ruhr Plomo (30x60 cm.) from the same range name. These create a minimalistic and neutral feeling. It is a restaurant and bar that has personality and character in which you can enjoy a delicious meal with great company and in great surroundings.

Pórtico

Pórtico (Sao Paulo - Brasil)

Casacor is taking place in the Sao Paulo Jockey Club, one of the most important design and decoration events in Latin America. Vives is honoured to participate with the porcelain 40x60 Portico tile that evokes a period when stone carving was an art. The Portico tile decorates the walls of an elegant and luxurious kitchen setting bringing a certain serenity to the room. This has been carried out by the architect Denise Barreto. You can visit this exhibition and see our wares on show until the end of July.

Candela

Candela (Alcora - Spain)

Introducing the latest project of L'Om Design Studio, a fashion store for children called 'Candela'. A tiny space with only 16.5m² that has been maximized to create a warm and childish atmosphere and proves that by choosing the right materials, it's possible to create a large space in a few m². Starring, porcelain wood tiles from Vives Azulejos y Gres. For the exterior facade Arhus-CR Blanco has been used giving the impression of a very warm and cosy 'wooden house', and when we get into the shop, the flooring Yugo-R Cielo draws our attention showing a blue wooden distressed texture along with the decoration so carefully selected making Candela a very special place for the little ones to wear their best clothes.

Vista Andes

Vista Andes (Andes - Chile)

This wonderful project is located in the Andes, Chile. A majestic building with ten penthouses and privileged views overlooking the most famous mountain ranges in the history. The famous architect Benny Dvorquez of Vista Andes was in charge of the design, construction and promotion. Inside we can discover a carefully designed staircase made with the Vives ceramic wood Salonga Antracita that blends perfectly with the floor and the upper stairs as they have chosen the porcelain tile Narpes Antracita. A great choice that gives a splendid natural stone effect. However, it doesn't end here with the dining area being clad with Nalón Natural, which creates a cosy atmosphere with its sumptuous forms and warm colours. Attention to the smallest details in the house have been taken care of with the barbecue being clad with Salonga Antracita, the same ceramic wood used in the interior stairs to create an effect of continuity and exquisiteness throughout the house.

Hara

Hara (Madrid - Spain)

Recently the 'afterwork' bars have become popular in Spain that give workers an place to escape from the routine work and share funny and relaxing moments with their colleagues. Hara, located in the center of Madrid, is one of the first Spanish 'afterwork' bars. Designed by La Credenza, they wanted to capture the Anglo essence and move it onto the latest trends. For this, they used ceramics made by VIVES with the Bunker-R Gris flooring tile for the cafe area together with a perfect combination of the 1900 Gris 20x20cm classic smooth gray tone that highlights the hydraulic look ceramic tiles created by the Tassel Perla, which gives a distinctive touch to every room creating very original and unique areas. These were then combined with the Plinto Gris and Escala Blanco wall tiles providing the area with a special touch. The furniture has been carefully also been chosen together with ceramics creating an eclectic harmony throughout the premises. A place to get away from routine in a most unusual environment.
