

FS BRIATI

Peronda

Tel: +34 964 602 012. www.peronda.com

The new FS Briati tile from the FS by Peronda collection is the result of a partnership between Peronda and designer Francisco Segarra, who is renowned for his vintage style. The plain tiles have cement effects that give these 452 x 452mm tiles an industrial edge, while the décor tiles look like four smaller tiles that have been worn over time. They can be mixed and matched in random compositions

COVERLAM

Grespania

Tel: +34 964 344 411. www.grespania.com

Grespania says that its large-format Coverlam porcelain tiles are the result of years of research and development. Available in sizes up to 1200 x 3600mm and with a minimal thickness of 3.5mm, the tiles come in a variety of finishes including Calacatta, Travertino and Concrete. Coverlam is pictured here in Estuario

NASSAU

Vives

Tel: +34 964 360 725.

www.vivesceramica.com

The mixing-and-matching trend was in evidence on the Vives stand, as demonstrated here with the Nassau porcelain tile collection.

The gold Kokomo Blanco 200 x 200mm tile, pictured right, is also available in cream, grey and graphite versions, while the Osaka Multicolour 200 x 200mm tile, pictured below, also comes in a black, white and grey colourway

MINIMAL CHIC AND SHAPES

Dune

Tel: 01455 610 202. www.duneuk.co.uk

Dune was back at Cesisama after a seven-year hiatus, and brought with it its new Minimal Chic collection, which features two finishes – cement finish Factory, and marble finish Emporio, pictured above. Sizes range from 200 x 200mm décor tiles to 300 x 600mm wall tiles, and 600 x 600mm and 600 x 1200mm floor tiles. The Shapes collection, pictured right in the Stripes decor, is inspired by origami and designed to provide endless combinations and patterns with plain or mixed patchwork designs

